Paul was preaching to people who came from many different cultural backgrounds. What sort of thoughts might they have had as they listened to him? Discuss your ideas then record them in the spaces.

Sometimes the Bible is hard to understand. What sort of study aids are there which help you?

Do you know how to use them? If you don't, ask your teacher to help you to learn.

How can you be sure that things like concordances and study guides are telling you the right story? How can you check whether or not they are biased towards one particular point of view?

What did Paul tell the people about God? Look through verses 16-33 and make a list of the facts Paul told them. You should be able to find at least 15.
